

Miss Brogan also visits the Agape House in Somerville, helping homeless families get back on their feet. Kate believes that, "Seeing the reaction and knowing that you are helping someone gives you a warm feeling inside."

As a result of her work, Kate was recently recognized as one of the top student volunteers in New Jersey. Kate was also chosen from a pool of more than 15,000 students across the Nation for her essays describing her volunteer work with Ms. Martin. But even as Kate is recognized for her work, she continues to do more. Using money she earns from babysitting, Kate also sponsors a disadvantaged young girl for $12 a month.

Mr. Speaker, I would also like to give thanks to Kate's parents, Elaine and James, who are also valuable volunteers in their own community. It has been their guiding example that has set Kate on her path of service. Their own compassion and dedication radiates in their child's spirit and actions.

Kate had said she has tried to spread her spirit of volunteering to her peers but runs into difficulty. I say to Kate, persevere and your great example shall convince them. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to congratulate Kate and wish her continued success in her first year at Immaculata High School next year.

HONORING THE REVEREND DR.
MAJOR MCGUIRE III

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 22, 1997

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, the Reverend Dr. Major McGuire is celebrating his 11th anniversary of pastoral ministry at the Emmanuel Baptist Church. In that time, he and his wife, the Reverend Darlene Thomas-McGuire, minister of education and youth, have contributed to its growth, brining in 400 members to the Emmanuel family.

The Reverend McGuire also initiated a number of programs which contributed to the growth and development of the church and surrounding community in the Bronx.

Rev. Major McGuire was born in Baltimore. He attended Morgan State University and Towson State University in Baltimore. He accepted the call to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and was licensed in 1974. Three years later he was named Under Shepherd of the Riverview Missionary Baptist Church in Coeymans, NY, and in May of that year was ordained from the New Shiloh Baptist Church in Baltimore. He later served at the Bethel Baptist Church in Mount Kisko.

He continued his education, ultimately receiving his masters of divinity degree from the Union Theological Seminary in New York City in 1983. He was awarded the Martin Luther King Distinguished Leadership Award from the State University of New York and in 1983 was named as an Outstanding Young Man of America.

In 1986, he became pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church. He, his wife, and their four children have made their church and community a landmark to the family and to worship. The Reverend McGuire made his church into a dramatic force for good. We salute him and the accomplishments of his ministry.

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF BISHOP GERALD JULIUS KAUFMAN

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 22, 1997

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to express my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Bishop Gerald Julius Kaufman, a man of the cloth who dedicated his life to the service of our community. Bishop Kaufman passed away on April 25.

Bishop Kaufman was sought by people from all ages. He was the chief shepherd of the Love Gospel Assembly, in my South Bronx congressional district. Established in 1970, the assembly is now one of the largest ministries in the New York City area.

At a special ceremony celebrated outside the church on October 9th, the community renamed part of the Grand Concourse, the main street in the Bronx, after him. It is now "Bishop Gerald J. Kaufman Way".

Kaufman was born in 1935 to Jewish parents Fred and Julia Kaufman in New York City. He demonstrated his strong will and perseverance by winning the battle against 12 years of substance abuse. His immense love for God and desire to be trained in the faith brought him to the Zion Bible School in Rhode Island, where he graduated with honors.

In 1967, Kaufman was ordained into ministry at the Zion Bible Institute. He continued his religious education at Vision Christian University, in Hawaii, where he received a B.S.L., Th.M., D. Min., L.H.D. and Ph.D.

Bishop Kaufman's service to God and his social ministry at the Love Gospel Assembly gave birth to a program which now feeds 500 to 700 people daily, a Care Service Ministry, and an Antioch School of Urban Ministry dedicated to train men and women in urban ministry.

Kaufman's fruitful work at Love Gospel Assembly spread far beyond the Bronx. He facilitated the opening of churches in Orlando, FL; Aguadilla and Bayamon, PR; Bridgetown, Barbados; and Ghana, Africa. He oversaw 23 ordained ministers, 22 licensed ministers, 16 pastors, and 45 missionaries.

Among other recognitions, Kaufman received a citation of merit and proclamation for dedicated community work from the Bronx Borough President's Office. Committed to his community, he also served on the board of directors of the Youth Challenge International organization and the Barnabas Ministries, and as chaplain of the Police Benevolent Association for the Federal Protective Services.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to join the family, friends, and members of the community in their prayers for the soul of Bishop Gerald Julius Kaufman. His legacy of love for our inner city neighborhood has not gone unnoticed. It is a blessing to all of our communities.

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO JOHN M.
COYNE: "AMERICA'S LONGEST-SERVING MAYOR"

HON. LOUIS STOKES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 22, 1997

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, I am especially pleased to pay tribute to an individual who has earned a very special place in the history of public service. In just a few weeks, John M. Coyne, the Mayor of Brooklyn, OH, will be honored for having served 50 years in this post. I join residents of the City of Brooklyn, the 11th Congressional District of Ohio, his colleagues, friends, and many others in recognizing Mayor Coyne on this auspicious occasion.

President Bill Clinton affectionately describes John Coyne as "this nation's longest-serving mayor." Indeed, Mayor Coyne holds the record for consecutive terms of service. In his 50 years of leading the City of Brooklyn, he has displayed a level of dedication and commitment that is unmatched.

Mr. Speaker, when John Coyne took office as mayor in 1948, Brooklyn was still a small village. Today, we celebrate a city that is a shining model for communities across America. Under Mayor Coyne's leadership, the City of Brooklyn led the country in promoting the first mandatory seatbelt law. He also administered ordinances to ban assault-type weapons, and started a mandatory curbside recycling program. With John Coyne at the helm, the City of Brooklyn has benefitted from millions of dollars in funding to support important transportation, recycling, recreation, and economic development initiatives.

Beyond his mayoral assignment, John Coyne also served five consecutive terms as Chair of the Cuyahoga County Democratic Party, the 13th largest county in the country. In this post, he pursued a course of action to make the Democratic Party inclusive of all races, creeds, colors, and religions. Under his chairmanship, more minorities were appointed or elected to public office in Cuyahoga County than under any other chairman in our history. He always stated to me, "Congressman, I don't see color, I see people."

I am proud of my personal association with Mayor Coyne. He has shared a very long friendship with me, my later brother, mayor and Ambassador Carl B. Stokes, and my daughter, Judge Angela R. Stokes. Additionally, I am grateful to him for the support he has given me each year enabling me to provide an annual Christmas party for poor and disadvantaged families in my congressional district.

Mr. Speaker, as he is honored for 50 consecutive years of public service, I join many others who are congratulating Mayor Coyne. I am also pleased to note that proceeds from the upcoming gala will benefit the John M. Coyne Endowed Public Service Scholarship at the Cleveland State University Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs. I extend my warm congratulations to Mayor Coyne, his devoted wife, Jean, and members of the Coyne family. We wish the Nation's "longest-serving mayor" many, many more years at the helm.

ADDRESS TO GREEN CROSS ON WATER

HON. GEORGE MILLER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 22, 1997

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I had the opportunity last Friday to speak at the International Freshwater Symposium sponsored by Green Cross International and Global
